LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUER

Pajama Prayer Party!

Did you get to join us in 2016 for the Days for Girls Event? If you did – you know what a wonderful time in service we spent with the women of the Nebraska South LWML. Our day of service was such a blessing to everyone who attended that we have decided to have another day of service in 2017. SAVE THE DATE: APRIL 22, 2017 – and join us for the Pajama Prayer Party!

We will be sewing pajamas for Bright Horizons (which is a shelter for battered women) and for Lutheran Family Services (for their Foster Child program). We'll also be doing some other things for Lutheran Family Services and sewing developmental hearts for premature babies in Nebraska's NICUs. The hearts will be made with the leftovers from the fabric for the pajamas.

Deaconess Jessica Feldman and LWML Member Elaine Nelson will be leading us in Bible study. We'll have a little breakfast and lunch and we'll have time for fellowship while we sew.

So what can you do now to prepare? Purchase 2 yards of flannel fabric and a matching t-shirt. Below you will find the size your zone has been assigned:

- ♥ Ainsworth – Kid's size – 5-8 and Women's size – small and medium
- ♥ Columbus – Kids size 8-12 and women's size – large
- ♥ Fremont – Kids Size 2T – 4T and women's size x-large
- ♥ Norfolk – Kids size 14-16 and women's size xx-large
- ♥ Omaha North, South and West – pajamas for newborn-12 months (we will not sew those) and women's sizes x-large
- ♥ Plainview – Kids Sizes 8-12 and women's size xx-large
- ♥ Wayne – Kids sizes 5-8 and women's sizes xxx-large
- ♥ West Point – Kids sizes 14-16 and women's sizes x-large

Registration information will be in the Spring Leaguer – so for now – plan to attend, gather your fabric (flannel), t-shirts, hygiene kits, and join us in service on April 22nd.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow...

Praise is a word used for communicating. It shows our Lord how much we appreciate all that He has done for us. "Praise the LORD, all nations! Extol him, all peoples! For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever.

Praise the LORD!" Psalms 117 encourages everyone to praise the Lord. We can't help but tell of God's faithfulness. The psalmist doesn't mention how it will affect, offend or make uncomfortable the people around him when he praises God. He. Just. Does. It. You may know someone with whom you can start the conversation. The conversation about beliefs, religion or faith can open a door to share what you believe. Even a conversation about recipes or quilts may lead to an invitation to church or an LWML event. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. It is He who puts us in those places and opportunities. Share His love, be Women in Mission.

The Lord Bless & Keep You!

This year – we are using the blessing from Numbers 6:24-26 as a series of themes for our Leaguer articles. The Lord bless you and keep you is verse 24 and is the first of the series. As I thought about the theme and how to approach this article – I was challenged to think about blessings in a way that didn't just talk about our "material" blessings – because often – that's what people think about when you talk about blessings. I began writing this article several times and was unsuccessful in my approach – I wanted to explore how the Lord blesses and keeps each one of us. In the end – what you read in this article is God once again blessing me by speaking through His Word and showing me a few more ways that I am blessed as I seek His guidance through the Word.

Blessings: Ok – so there is the obvious – our material blessings. Some of us have more "material" things than others – but we do have blessings. I was blessed by much bounty from my garden this year, I am blessed to have a good job, a good boss and wonderful co-workers. I am blessed with family and friends. I am blessed to live in a country where we have the freedom to live out my faith life without fear. These are all wonderful things – but from my perspective quite obvious. Are there other ways the Lord blesses and keeps us? I think the answer is yes – many, many more – just some are given below.

Blessing #1: God seeks us out to have a relationship with us – it isn't up to us. God's seeking started from the very beginning when God was walking in the garden and said "Where are you?" to Adam and Eve in Genesis 3:9. I'm sure God, who is omnipotent, omnipresent, and omniscient, already knew the answer to His question, He knew they were hiding because they had sinned and knew that they had sinned. They were afraid. However – He was reaching out and seeking His fallen creation, He was showing them love. Yes, God seeks us – even when we aren't all that interested or are scared to seek Him. That is one of God's wonderful blessings. He seeks us and He keeps us in His care. We are the Lord's children and He is the perfect parent to care for us. What a wonderful blessing that is.

Blessing #2: Sometimes I think we forget how present God is in our daily lives. He is a God who cares about the everyday details. He watches over our coming and our going now and forevermore (Psalm 121:8). How wonderful is it to know that God is watching over everything we do and guiding us along the way? We sometimes mess up (ok – maybe more often than not) – but He is there to watch and to guide as we seek Him as He seeks us. What a wonderful blessing that is.

Blessing #3: He is patient with us to share who He is with others, so that no one will perish. (The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some of you understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. 2 Peter 3:9). Wow – am I glad God is patient with me. So many times I don't share the Hope that I have in Jesus and I should. Sometimes I don't step out of my comfort zone and approach someone in need of care. Even so, the Lord blesses me with patience. What a wonderful blessing that is.

In closing, I want you to know that "you are A CHOSEN RACE, A royal PRIESTHOOD, A HOLY NATION, A PEOPLE FOR God's OWN POSSESSION, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light." 1 Peter 2:9. By what Christ has done for us at the cross, we have become His chosen people, His sons and daughters, princes and princesses. He goes before us and fights our battles, He watches our coming and our going, and He seeks us out to have a relationship with Him. What a wonderful set of blessings those are for us. As you are in the Word and partake of His sacrament – also the wonderful blessings He provides, remember He is seeking you and wants to build a relationship with you. What a wonderful blessing that is.

Blessings

“The Lord bless you and keep you” ... we hear these words every Sunday and frequently, we are so busy getting ready to leave church, that we don’t really listen to them. What grace ... that the Lord would bless us. What grace ... that He would want to keep us close to Him. That He would care enough about us, to want to bless us. This past year I have received so many blessings in the form of prayers, kind words, hugs, cards; so many I cannot count them. I never knew how many “people blessings” God had placed in my life. They were there to hold me up, give me strength and courage, and to help me see that I truly have been blessed. These blessings in my life have enabled me to go forward and see some of God’s “plans I have for you; plans to give you hope and a future.” Even in the worst of circumstances, God shows us the blessings He has placed all around us, and how through those blessings, He “keeps” us close to Him. Through their many prayers, I have been able to smile again and move forward. And I hope I have learned to appreciate my blessings and share my blessings, and that I may hold up in prayer those who are suffering too. So next Sunday at the end of service, listen to the departing blessing and smile at how God sends you off into the world. And to each of my purple sisters in Christ...the Lord bless and keep you!

Mites Update from President Crystal

At Convention – our Purple Silent Auction and Rock-A-Thon raised enough funds for us to be able to present our two final Mission Projects for the 2014-2016 Biennium. It is with great joy that I was able to meet President Richard Snow here in Omaha to present him with the payment for Care for Church Workers Mission Grant. Additionally, I was able to present the 2016-2018 YWR Mission Grant for the Nebraska District Youth Gathering at the same time! The following week – I was able to present Bruce Wall, Executive Director of Camp Luther the Hispanic Youth Leadership and Discipleship Mission Grant. There was a lot of excitement from Bruce and President Snow as they are now able to carry out the work that was identified in the mission grants. It is your dedication to giving to Mites that allows these mission projects to happen.

At the last board meeting, zone presidents were given directions to be sure to send the minutes from fall rallies to me, the district archivist/historian, asap. Shortly after I got home I was able to once again open my e-mail and I had received an e-mail from the national archivist/historian with changes. So now – DO NOT SEND ME THE MINUTES FROM THE FALL RALLY.

There are changes that will affect all levels of LWML.

Societies –will not send anything to the zone archivist unless you are specifically requested. Keep in your local files: executive board minutes, meeting minutes, treasurer's reports, year books, society reports, pictures, properly filed and identified and your local history.

Zones – will keep only zone information, including the obvious; minutes, reports, pictures, zone history. Do not send anything to the district historian/archivist. If I want to do a display on zones, I will request information from you.

IF a church does close, it is the duty of the local society to get all their files to the district archivist/historian. They will be stored in the archives in Seward. These are not stored with church archives. The LWML is responsible for them.

If a society becomes inactive it will depend upon the situation as to whether they keep their files or if they go to Seward.

At this point, I have not found any inactive files at Seward and I know there are several churches that have closed and several societies that are not active. I would appreciate any information any one may have on any of these societies.

Please contact me if you have any questions or any information.

Blessed by Trusting

“But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.” Jeremiah 17:7-8

I don't know about you but trees are some of my favorite creations to admire and enjoy no matter the season. Trees provide shade, shelter, beauty, and even give off live sustaining oxygen. This time of year, the different colors remind us of how beautiful God's creation really is. But as I dwell on these verses, the imagery of putting our complete trust and confidence in God really is like a tree. A strong root system keeps a tree healthy in good weather and bad weather. As we endure blessings and challenges in life, it is so important for us to not put our faith in mankind and ourselves but deepen our relationship and faith in God. We can draw from the waters of our relationships with others, spending time in the Word, and celebrating the Sacraments. Even when we endure troubles by keeping our faith in Christ we experience the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness and self-control. Because of Christ we can overcome the challenges of this world and not rely on mankind or ourselves to solve every problem. Every day it is easy to be preoccupied with the things we have to do, the things we worry about and things we really don't have any control over. Be thankful and trust in God and His Peace will give you strength and comfort as we grow more confident and excited about our eternal home and not the circumstances of this world. And let us cling to the promises found in the Benediction, “The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine on you and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace.”

Yours in Christ, Karla Koehler, Recording Secretary

Bless the People

When the Lord God told Moses that Aaron and his sons should bless the people of Israel, the blessing given was this: “The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.” (Numbers 6:24-26) What a wonderful way to leave worship and enter the mission field that is our neighborhoods and towns and world. With the Lord’s blessing, we are equipped for whatever the day brings.

As I write this article, I have received great, good news, the birth of a healthy granddaughter! Yes, the Lord is good, and He indeed blesses us. It seems not so long ago that the Lord gave the mother of this child to me to protect and raise and love. And now she is a mother like her mother. Oh the blessings God gives in such tiny bundles.

That is our God, always loving, always blessing as He comes to us where we are because we are not able to come to Him. And He came to us in that most unusual way for Almighty God. He came to us in His Son as a tiny bundle conceived and born to be held for a moment as He made preparations to hold us forever.

As I knew when I held my daughter and now my granddaughter, I am not able to guard them from danger this world holds. Only their heavenly Father is able to deliver them from sin and death and the power of the devil. That is why we bring these tiny bundles to the baptismal font. As the Lord calls us, so we come to receive His blessing in baptism. “The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off-- for all whom the Lord our God will call.” (Acts 2:39) There, by His Word, our Lord calls them His own, washes away their sins, and covers them in Jesus’ righteousness. By the blood of our crucified and risen Savior, they have the Lord’s blessing in baptism. “Or don’t you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection.” (Romans 6:3-5)

Praise be to God for all His blessings, especially the blessing of His son who died and rose again for our salvation. Amen.

Whenever the words “The Lord Bless You and Keep You” are said a certain tune from the anthem we sang in choir years ago goes through my mind. This was not a particularly easy song to sing for us especially when we got to the “amens” at the end, but it was very satisfying as a choir member to have a special part that no one else had. To make the song end well it was important to bring out that part while blending in with the rest of the choir, and get ready for the final “amen” when we quietly together again ended the anthem.

In this office there have been many wishes of God’s Blessings given to me as people have written with thank you’s for grants received, or just for consideration of a grant. It would be fitting for each of you who give the mites for these important mission projects to receive the wishes, and often the people writing the final reports etc. do ask that their appreciation be extended to NE North LWML. May God Bless You!

Each society is to be given a copy of the “link up” poster for this biennium regarding the mission grants from the district. This time it is a simple time line drawn from top to bottom along which are written the project grants which we are supporting. The time line begins with our fiscal year which begins on April 1st. Again during this biennium we started the year by paying off the final two grants from the last biennium. We have paid for the new teen grant and YWR grant, along with the scholarships for students who are going into church work. We now hope to pay our first mission grant (according to the number of votes received at convention) to Mission Central fairly soon. This grant ($10,000) will go to the missionaries it will most benefit at the time it is received. The next grant ($10,000) will go to “At Ease” –Ministry for Veterans, Active Military and their Loved Ones, a program from Lutheran Family Services of Nebraska. This grant is given to help with this program, which according to their request is, “to supply faithful comfort to our nation’s veterans, active military and their loved ones.”

As we each have our parts to play in the LWML may we all come together and give of our bounty for the missions we have selected, so we can finish in unison with a nice quiet “Amen”!

I want to thank you so much for your generosity in giving me the financial support of $1000 for the 2016/17 school year! It means so much to me that you want to help in my future endeavors for church work! I want to thank you and the entire Nebraska North District LWML! It means a lot knowing that you wanted to help ease my financial burden making my path to graduation so much easier!

 I am going into secondary education with emphasis' in History and Theology. I'm planning on getting my Lutheran Teacher degree and teaching at private schools.
 Again thank you so much for considering me for this award and making it easier for me to achieve my goals of becoming a Lutheran School teacher. I will be praying for the Nebraska North LWML and your generosity is so much appreciated!

Michaela Jean Curran

Our Redeemer Lutheran, Wahoo
 Concordia University – Seward
 I am currently in my final semester at Concordia where I am pursuing a degree in secondary math education, with a minor in theology. This semester I am doing my student teaching experiences. My first placement is at David City Public schools where I teach 7th-12th math. My second placement is at Lincoln Lutheran where I will teach both middle and high school math classes, as well. It is my hope to teach math in either a Lutheran or Public school, as I have always enjoyed working with children and I feel that God has blessed me with the talents to do so. Besides teaching, I would like to coach cross country and track, as I am an avid runner. Through teaching and coaching I hope to share the love of Christ with my students and help them to grow not only academically, but spiritually, as well.

I have entered into my final year at Concordia University and am student teaching this semester! It's a busy and exciting time! However, I know this experience would not be possible without your support. Three years in a row I have been blessed in receiving scholarships from our district. You all have helped to continue to make my dreams of teaching become a reality. So thank you, from the depths of my heart!

 Go into education as a High School art teacher. I also hope to someday be able to go into art therapy for kids with ADD and ADHD, all while spreading the word of God.

I wanted to say thank you to the Nebraska North District LWML for the generous gift of this scholarship. It is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your continued support of those pursuing careers in church work and supporting the training of those who wish to spread God's love.

Caleb Haack

Hello, my name is Caleb Haack and I am a senior at Concordia University, Nebraska. I am studying Theology in the DCE program and am very much looking forward to serving the Lord in ministry in a called position. My home congregation is Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church is La Vista, Nebraska. Thank you so much for providing me with your generous scholarship to assist me in continuing my education.

Hygiene Kits

Here we go again! I can't believe it. I was supposed to hang out with my friends this weekend and now I have to go to another foster home. I wish my parents could just get this figured out so I can have a real life. I hardly get to take any of my stuff with me. I'm just sick of living like this and not knowing what to expect from day to day or where I will even sleep each night. I love my mom and dad and I know they need help and home isn't the best place, but it's my place.

This is the story of Jessica. She will be placed in a foster home through Lutheran Family Services. While there is not much that we can do to help her home situation, we can make the transition a bit easier by providing some essential items she may need to get through the first couple days. Join us in collecting hygiene items for foster kids of LFS. Kits will be collected at the LWML Pajama Prayer Party held April 22 at Peace Lutheran in Grand Island.
